NARRATIVE:

Rekha Bun is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. Her convictions include multiple cases of possession of a firearm by a felon, carrying a concealed weapon, firearm access violation, vehicle theft, forgery, multiple cases of check fraud, multiple cases of grand theft, identity theft, possession of controlled substances for sale and shoplifting. She has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 5 year term for identity theft. Bun was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 20, 2016. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2016 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Bun qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
